The CHEO Access Team is for those with complex needs. It is for children who have missed important developmental milestones like crawling or talking, or children and youth who have complex physical and cognitive health issues.

The CHEO Access Team is also for children and youth with simple rehabilitation needs, like temporary treatment after a sports injury. And, it is even for families who may need a break from caring for their child or youth with complex needs.

Some of the services included:

Social work, autism diagnosis, care and respite, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, recreation therapy, behaviour services and the First Words Preschool Speech and Language Program.

The CHEO Access Team takes effect November 5, 2018
