

Washing My Hands at Childcare

Descriptive sentence
“I wash my hands at childcare.”
Perspective sentence
“Sometimes, I get upset when I have to wash my hands.”
Cooperative Sentence
“When I get upset, my educator will wait with me at the sink until I am calm enough to wash my hands.”
Affirmative Sentence
“Staying calm helps me wash my hands so I can play.”
Directive Sentence (guide the child)
“I can ask my educator for help.”
Control Sentence (written by the child)
“If I get upset, I can take a deep breath and count to ten.”	